

True or False

1. Flango is a digital platform that provides students with a library of engaging stories about a wide range of subjects. (True or False)
2. Too Many Pigs and One Big Bad Wolf is a take on the classic story of Goldilocks and the Three Bears. (True or False)
3. The CP3 basketball academy was started by NBA star Chris Paul and provides skill development, leadership opportunities, and basketball education. (True or False)
4. In Pillow Palace Princess, Prince Mason winds up in the Kingdom of Calondes and he befriends Scarlett. (True or False)
5. Mr. McClosky's Marvelous Mallards tells the story behind the story of the idea conceived for the classic book Make Way for Ducklings. (True or False)
6. Dressing Up the Stars is about the first woman to head a major studio costume department. (True or False)
7. Marker is a story that teaches that it's OK to make mistakes, and we can all work together to correct them. (True or False)

Fill in the Blanks

1. In the girl power book Princess Noa Is Not Sorry, the name of Princess Noa's dog is _____.
2. In the book The Flying Man, we learn about Otto Lilienthal, who was the the world's first _____.
3. In Flip Turns, Maddie and her friend launch their own investigation into who's sabotoging her family's _____.
4. In the Lindie Lou Adventure Series, Lindie Lou and her friends are trying to locate a _____ in New Zealand.
5. In book 2 of the Misty the Cloud series, Misty's party with her cloud friends is interrupted by the _____.
6. In Adventures with Pop Pop at Grant's Farm, Pop Pop calls his grandkids, Grandman Levi and Grandman _____.
7. In Dinosaurs Like Bananas, Tool!, Logan and his dinosaur friend meet a whale, a bird, a bear, and a _____ on their adventure.

Answers
True/False: 1. True 2. False 3. True 4. False 5. True 6. False 7. True
Fill in the Blanks: 1. Finnegan 2. pilot 3. pool 4. treasure 5. sunbeams 6. Dean 7. monkey

